

Erica Keller, Aptiv

Erica L. Keller is the Vice President, Deputy General Counsel for Aptiv. Based in Troy, Michigan, Erica is responsible for global litigation (and litigation avoidance) and manages all legal matters in Latin America. Previously, Erica was the Vice President of Global Litigation at ZF Friedrichshafen (formerly TRW Automotive). Prior to ZF, Erica was a litigation partner at Honigman Miller Schwartz & Cohn, and an associate at Dykema Gossett, both of which are based in Detroit. Erica has a bachelor's degree from The University of Michigan and a law degree from Wayne State University Law School. Erica is fluent in French and also studied at l'Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris (Sciences Po). In her free time, Erica is a passionate travel photographer who will head to South America later this year to shoot glaciers in Patagonia and the tango in Buenos Aires.
