

Victoria Webster

Yamaha Motor Corporation, U.S.A.

Victoria Webster is senior counsel with Yamaha Motor Corporation, U.S.A. She started her career at Yamaha in California in July 1986, and transferred to the Yamaha manufacturing facility located in Newnan, Georgia in April 1992. From there, she continues to oversee product liability actions involving ATVs, side by side vehicles, golf cars, snowmobiles, and personal watercraft.

Victoria received her J.D., magna cum laude, from Southwestern University School of Law in Los Angeles in 1984. She was a graduate of Southwestern's Conceptual Approach to Legal Education (SCALE) program, an accelerated two year, fully accredited law school curriculum. She received her B.A. from Pasadena College in 1972. She is a member of both the California and Georgia Bars, and various federal districts in California.