Teleseminar Hostess

Hostess:

Cris Sgrott-Wheedleton, CPO®, CPO-CD®

Cris started Organizing Maniacs® in 2007 after losing her project management job to the economy. She has been an active member of NAPO-WDC and ICD. She is an ECO SIG and a Golden Circle member of NAPO. She is an avid student and reader of organizing and murder mystery books. She is proud to have earned just about all of ICD certificates of studies and has all 4 specialist certificates. She has spent most of her professional career working with the public, and that has been extremely valuable in her professional organizing career. Sometimes she wishes she was more organized!

Dr. Regina Lark is the owner of A Clear Path: Professional Organizing for Home, Work, Life. As a Certified Professional Organizer she specializes in working with people with chronic disorganization, ADHD, and hoarding. She is also a relocation specialist, helping families move or downsize from one home to the next.

Regina is a speaker and trainer on issues ranging from hoarding to time management. She is the author of Psychic Debris, Crowded Closets: The Relationship between the Stuff in your Head and What's Under your Bed (Purple Books, 2014). She sits on the Board of the National Association of Professional Organizers, and is a member of the National Speakers Association.

Regina ran for the office of Lt. Governor in California in 1998, and a year later completed her Ph.D. in history from the University of Southern California. For fun, she teaches U.S. Women's History at Los Angeles Pierce College.

Tammy Schotzko, CPO®

218-766-0197

Born and raised in Northern MN, Tammy is married with 2 young adults. Having moved 7 times, earned a B.S. in Business with a Psychology minor while working almost full-time, fighting (and winning!) the breast cancer battle, running several small businesses, and parenting, she could not have stayed sane without being organized. These combined education and life experiences have given her a zeal to share her organizing talents with others so they may in turn get more out of life with less frustration!

Called “The House Whisperer” by her clients, Tammy operates with a “less is more” theory, focusing on keeping the things you truly have time for and love, while letting go of those that weigh you down. Sometimes she says this tongue in cheek, as those that know her well know how many “projects” she has lined up in her studio.

Tammy is an active member of :

- NAPO, the National Association of Professional Organizers, volunteering on their Education Committee and serving as an Ambassador to new members
- Bemidji Chamber of Commerce, where she was awarded the 2014 “Entrepreneur of the Year” award
- ICD, the Institute for Challenging Disorganization, obtaining all 10 Level I Specialist Certificate as well as the Level II Chronic Disorganization Specialist

718-930-8111

Anna Lieber founded Organized Space Works, a division of Lieber Brewster Design Inc. in 2007, specializing in chronic disorganization, hoarding disorder, move management and estate clearing. Frequently referred by psychiatrists or social workers, she has excellent results with those with ADHD or OCD, often co-morbid conditions with hoarding disorder.

A business owner since 1988, she assists companies with organizing, time management and productivity. With a design and project management background, she offers home staging and redesign.

As Membership Director for NAPO-NY and an active member of The Golden Circle, Anna encourages members to make a unique contribution. She has written PR for the chapter and presented at the 2011 conference Organize with NY Style.

A member of the Institute for Challenging Disorganization, Anna has appeared on TLC's Hoarding: Buried Alive. She worked with homeowner Ken to remedy his hoarding situation, during and between filming.

Formerly, Anna operated a marketing firm, Lieber Brewster Design. She was featured in "O, The Oprah Magazine," as a business owner bouncing back after 9/11. Anna taught Marketing and Internet Copywriting at NYU, and Time Management at FIT. Her articles on time, business and brand strategy appear in The NY Enterprise Report and online.
