

	2019 Pennsylvania Stormwater Conference
	Certifications:
	Eligible for 5 Engineer PDHs.
	Eligible for 5 PMGA Public Works or 5 PMGA Administration Points.
	Two Convenient Locations:
October 16 / Allegheny County
Doubletree Hotel Conference Center, 101 Mall Boulevard, Monroeville, PA, 15146
November 15 / Chester County
Desmond Malvern Conference Center, 1 Liberty Boulevard, Malvern, PA, 19355
Registration at MS4GreatIdeas.PSATS.org

Opening Session
9 - 9:15 a.m.	Welcome/Opening Remarks/Charge for the Day

First Workshop Session
	Policy Track Part 1:	Technical Track Part 1:
9:15 - 10:15 a.m.	"Creating Partnerships for Compliance" Adrienne Vicari, P.E., and Mark Spatz, P.E. / Herbert, Rowland & Grubic, Inc.	"It Takes a Team to Control the Stormwater Stream" Robert Woodman, P.E., CPESC / ACF Environmental
10:15 - 11:15 a.m.	"Lebanon County's Joint Pollutant Reduction Plan" Dan Cannistraci / Steckbeck Engineering and Surveying, Inc.	"Determining the True Cost of BMPs" Mark Harman, P.G. / ARRO Consulting, Inc.
11:15 - 12:15 p.m.	"Implementing a Stormwater Fee for Rural Areas" Kara Kalupson / RETTEW	"Economic Ecology: Benefits of Using Natural Resources" Ben Ehrhart, P.E., CFM, and Michael LaSala, CPMSM, CSI / LandStudies, Inc.

Lunch
12:15 - 1:15 p.m.	Lunch & Networking

Second Workshop Session
	Policy Track Part 2:	Technical Track Part 2:
1:15 - 2:15 p.m.	"Balancing Grey Infrastructure and Green Infrastructure" Beth Uhler / CEDARVILLE Engineering Group, LLC, and Mathew VanHew / East Brandywine Township, Chester County	Stream Corridor Restoration: Benefits as an MS4 BMP Todd Moses / Skelly and Loy, Inc.
2:15 - 3:15 p.m.	"Pre-Prepare for the 2023 MS4 Permit" TBD	"Working with Private Landowners to Achieve Cost-effective Compliance" Kara Kalupson / RETTEW

Closing Session
3:15 - 3:30 p.m.	Wrap-up and Closing Remarks
3:30 p.m.	Adjourn