

VOICING

Pragmatic, Intuitive, and Inclusive Tone Building

with Jim Busby, RPT and Vince Mrykalo, RPT

March 7 - 9, 2019

PTG Home Office • Kansas City

my.ptg.org/voicing2019

In this 3-day class you will learn:

- Techniques to help you listen more critically
- Methods to efficiently “concert prep” the piano prior to voicing
- Traditional voicing methods
- What to do when traditional methods don’t work for specific makes of hammers
- Steinway and Sons (NY) tone building (using lacquer)
- Alternate voicing methods that many concert technicians successfully use

Cost is $895 for PTG members and $1,045 for nonmembers.

Includes transportation between the nearby Drury Inn and Home Office, plus lunch on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Starts at 8 a.m. Thursday and ends at 5 p.m. Saturday.

Only nine slots available. Register by February 1 to save your space.

Designed for experienced technicians who have not had much practice in voicing, but do have experience with tuning and regulating.

Take advantage of special PTG rates at the Drury Inn with free wireless internet, hot breakfast, evening Kickback with hot food and cold drinks, fitness center, indoor pool, free parking and more.

Register online at my.ptg.org/voicing2019, return the form below to Piano Technicians Guild, 4444 Forest Avenue, Kansas City, KS 66106 or call (913) 432-9975 to register with a credit card. Your confirmation packet will include transportation and lodging information along with a tool and supply list.
