What is the RIMS-CRMP?

The RIMS-Certified Risk Management Professional (RIMS-CRMP) is a credential that demonstrates your achievement of risk management competencies, knowledge and commitment to quality.

Why should I earn the RIMS-CRMP?

Certification is an investment in your career and in the future of your employer. The need for a knowledgeable workforce in the principles and practices of risk management is important to this discipline. Certification is the mark of excellence. It demonstrates that the certified individual has current and relevant knowledge of the discipline.

How can I earn the RIMS-CRMP?

First, view the eligibility requirements to make sure you have the necessary experience. Then complete an application detailing your education and relevant work experience, read and sign the Code of Ethics, Disclosure and Attestations and submit the $55 application fee. If approved, you will sit for the exam on Sunday, April 10 from 1:00–3:30pm (Pacific Time) in San Diego, CA.

How do I prepare for the exam?

The RIMS-CRMP exam will cover a variety of risk management—related topics across five domains: Analyzing the Business Model, Designing Organizational Risk Strategies, Implementing the Risk Process, Developing Organizational Risk Competency and Supporting Decision Making. Please review the topics in each domain to prepare for the exam. For more preparation details, visit www.RIMS.org/Certification and select “Examination” from the menu.

How will I be recognized?

- Official RIMS-CRMP Certificate
- Ability to add the RIMS-CRMP initials following your name
- Recognition on the RIMS-CRMP website as a certification holder
- Recognition in the RIMS Annual Conference Guide distributed to all attendees

I'm not a RIMS member, can I take the exam?

The pilot exam in April is open to RIMS professional members only. However, subsequent exams, beginning October 2016, are open to anyone who meets the eligibility requirements.
