12:00 pm – 12:45 pm DEI 101: A Primer for Understanding Diversity, Equity and Inclusion in the Workplace

Patty Powell, University of Denver

These days, we often talk about diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) in a one-dimensional manner. However, many of our references to these concepts lack a nuanced understanding of what each of these terms means, and how they intersect to form a process for creating safe and inclusive work spaces. In this session, participants will gain a deeper understanding of DEI on both the organizational and individual levels. We will explore the very human manifestations of unconscious bias, stereotyping and imposter syndrome-- and how the operation of these dynamics can adversely impact the well-being and psychological safety of our colleagues. Hopefully, participants will leave this session with the motivation to take their DEI work to the next level, using their own voices and efforts to enrich the ongoing process of incorporating diversity, equity and inclusion into their professional and personal spaces.

12:45 pm – 1:00 pm Break

1:00 pm – 1:45 pm Risk Managers Can Stop Nuclear Verdicts Today

Jacob Felderman, Tyson & Mendes

Are Nuclear Verdicts driving social inflation? Do plaintiff's attorneys have a formula to achieve astronomical awards, particularly against corporate defendants? Join Jacob Felderman as he provides concrete solutions to these challenges facing you and your company. This interactive and engaging session empowers you, your company, and your counsel to combat nuclear verdicts and take back justice for all!
