

Rocky Mountain RIMS Board of Directors Code of Ethics

The Rocky Mountain Chapter of RIMS Board of Directors has adopted the following Code of Ethics to be followed and upheld by its Board members throughout their term on the Board.

- Avoid any conflicts of interest and decline valuable consideration (e.g. “Any act, article, money or other material possession which is of such value or proportion that its acceptance creates a clandestine obligation on the part of the receiver or otherwise compromises his ability to exercise his own judgment.”) that could generate the perception that it was received in return for influence or favoritism;
- Maintain the privacy and confidentiality of information obtained in the course of Board duties and not divulge information , in whole or in part, unless duly authorized or required by law;
- Demonstrate and promote professional responsibility within the risk management profession;
- Maintain honest, respectful and ethical behavior at all times, making no known false, malicious or misleading statements to the Society, chapter members or others with whom business is conducted;
- Comply with all applicable Risk and Insurance Management Society, legal and regulatory requirements; and
- Conduct all business activity without regard to age, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, marital status or disability.
