ARM 54 - Risk Management Principles & Practices

The New York Chapter of the Risk and Insurance Management Society, Inc. will sponsor the ARM 54 Course, "Risk Management Principles & Practices," beginning, Tuesday, June 19, 2018.

ARM 54 provides an overview of the risk management process focusing on establishing a risk management program, review hazard risk, as well as, operational, financial, and strategic risk, focus on risk management framework and process to identify, analyze, and treat risk. The course will also focus on financial statement risk analysis, capital investment and financial risk, and monitoring the reporting on risk.

This course will prepare participants to take The Institutes' ARM 54 examination. After passing the examinations for ARM 54, ARM 55, ARM 56, and The Ethical Guidelines, candidates will be awarded the Associate in Risk Management (ARM) designation by The Institutes.

New this year, the course will be taught virtually via Cisco's WebEx platform enabling students the benefit of a seasoned live instructor from the convenience of your home or office. The WebEx link will be emailed to all registrants prior to the first class. The platform can support a maximum of 24 students.

The course begins on Tuesday, June 19, 2018 and will be held from 6:00 to 8:00 pm on Tuesday evenings for 11 sessions, plus an additional comprehensive review session. The instructor is David Shluger, ARM, CIRM, MBA of Zurich North America. He previously taught ARM 55 and ARM 56 on behalf of the RIMS New York Chapter, has 10 years of experience in Risk Management and Insurance and is a 2018 Business Insurance Breakout Award winner.

Tuition:

$400—RIMS Members
$475—Non-Members

The tuition fee includes the virtual classroom sessions and a review session prior to the examination, but does NOT include the books—a course guide and workbook at an additional cost of $198.00. There is no tax on the $198.00 and it must be purchased directly through The Institutes. Students who choose to sit for the national ARM exam must register and pay the exam fee separately to The Institutes.
