About the Speaker

Dr. Eugene Tian is the Chief Economist at the Hawaii State Department of Business, Economic Development & Tourism (DBEDT). His office conducts research on economic issues such as tourism, emerging industries, diversification, quality of life, technology, energy, and taxation. His team also produces the official statewide short-range economic forecast on a quarterly basis and the long-range population and economic forecast every 5 years.

His program is also responsible for compiling and publishing the State of Hawaii Data Book, the monthly economic and energy indicators, the daily passengers count to Hawaii.

The Hawaii State Data Center program is also a part of his office. Data center staff work on coordinating, organizing, maintaining, and analyzing Hawaii census data.

Dr. Tian received his economics degrees from the University of Hawaii at Manoa.
