

Robert J. Ilik
Senior Supervisory Manager
Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia

Robert Ilik is a safety and soundness senior manager in the supervision, regulation, and credit department at the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia. His regulatory experience includes community, regional and large bank supervision with an examination focus on accounting and financial reporting, capital management, internal audit, and enterprise risk management. He is a member of the Federal Reserve System's Accounting Communications Network and the CECL implementation team. Robert received his commissioned examiner credentials in June 2013.

Prior to joining the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia in 2011, Robert held senior management positions in accounting and finance at ING Bank and GMAC Commercial Mortgage Corporation. His responsibilities covered financial reporting, accounting policy, investment and loan accounting, capital planning, M&A due diligence, and financial planning and analysis.

Robert received a Master of Business Administration from Saint Joseph's University, and a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from LaSalle University. He is a Certified Public Accountant, and a graduate of the ABA Stonier Graduate School of Banking.