

Joseph M. Finley
Regional President – Philadelphia and South Jersey
TriState Capital Bank

Drexel University, Philadelphia, PA – BS Accounting

Joined TriState Capital Bank in 2007 as part of the original management team of this Pennsylvania-chartered de novo bank. In 2022 TriState Capital was sold to Raymond James for $1.2billion and now operates as a wholly owned subsidiary of Raymond James.

- Responsible for developing new banking relationships throughout the Philadelphia region, including commercial real estate, C&I, equipment finance and treasury management. The Philadelphia team includes twenty bankers focusing on relationship management, treasury management, equipment finance, underwriting and private banking.
- Responsible for the overall market strategy in coordination with executive management in Pittsburgh.

Prior experience includes Wilmington Trust of Pennsylvania (10 years), CoreStates/PNB (12 years), WSFS (3 years).

Current board positions

- Association for Corporate Growth, Philadelphia chapter
- Junior Achievement of Southeastern Pennsylvania

Other

- Rolling Green Golf Club, Springfield, PA
- Union League of Philadelphia, Philadelphia, PA
- Union League National Golf Club, Swainton, NJ

Resides in Rose Valley, PA with his wife Anna Marie and they have three grown children.