

Scholarship Program

ABOUT RMA

RMA is an association committed to supporting the increased profitability of its member financial institutions and to serving professionals who require a comprehensive understanding of credit risk identification and management. More than 1,600 banks and other financial firms are members of RMA, represented by more than 41,000 associates.

FACTS

A $3,500 Academic Scholarship will be awarded to an eligible candidate for the following fall semester. The scholarship is for a one-time issuance and is not renewable.

Applications will be reviewed by a scholarship committee established by the RMA Maine Chapter. Several board members will serve as the selection committee, and the final decision will be voted on by the Maine Chapter's board of directors. The scholarship will be awarded to an individual based on academic record, leadership, personal statement, and participation in school and community activities. College enrollment of sophomore or higher standing will be confirmed before scholarship is awarded in the fall of 2024.

ELIGIBILITY

1. Applicant must be a dependent of an individual employed in Maine full-time by an RMA member bank or a dependent of an individual RMA associate.
2. Applicant must be currently enrolled on a full-time basis at an accredited institution of higher learning.
3. Applications accepted for all undergraduate courses of study. Special emphasis will be placed on individuals enrolled in a business or economics field of study.

HOW TO APPLY

1. Applicant must fully complete the Scholarship Application. Incomplete applications will not be considered and the RMA Maine Chapter, at its sole discretion shall make all decisions.
2. Applicant must provide an official college transcript of grades.
3. In a Personal Statement of 500 words or less, the applicant must describe their personal goals and how their educational plans relate to them.
4. If emailing the application, the words "RMA Scholarship" must appear in the subject line of the email.
5. Send completed application with attachments by April 26, 2024 by email to jsirois@mainecb.com or by mail to:
