

RMA SPOKANE PRESENTS: ECONOMIC UPDATE PANEL

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 2017
8:00AM—9:30AM; PRICE $40;
BREAKFAST INCLUDED
SPOKANE CLUB— GEORGIAN ROOM

Please join us in the upcoming panel discussion, focusing on topics that cover our local, regional, and national economies. Our experienced panel is sure to provide thought-provoking insight on hot topics including economic opportunities and threats, proposed tax reform, the future of NAFTA, and policy changes under the new Fed chairman, to name a few. The panelists are Jon Driver, Grant Forsyth, and Steve Scranton.

Jon Driver is an Agricultural Economist for Northwest Farm Credit Services. Prior to joining the company two years ago, he was the owner/operator of DD Farms, giving him real life experience. Jon majored in agribusiness, management, and economics at Washington State University and studied economics and European Union environmental policy in Florence, Italy.

Dr. Grant Forsyth is the Chief Economist of Avista Corp. Before coming to Avista in 2012, he was Professor of Economics at Eastern Washington University from 1999 to 2012. He received his PhD in Economics from Washington State University in 1996 and serves on the Washington Governor's Council of Economic Advisors, The Citizen Commission for the Performance Measurement of Tax Preferences, and the Spokane Mayor's Economic Advisory Roundtable.

Steve Scranton is the Chief Investment Officer and Economist for Washington Trust Bank and holds a Chartered Financial Analyst designation with over 30 years of investment and economic experience. As Washington Trust Bank's CIO, Steve is responsible for management of the Portfolio Management Group and works closely with clients and relationship managers to design, implement and monitor investment and risk management strategies.
