

RMA Presents Federal Reserve Bank Economic Update and Outlook

Fall Event

Speaker

Chad Wilkerson is Branch Executive of the Kansas City Fed's Oklahoma City Branch office. In this role, he serves as the Bank's lead officer and regional economist in the state of Oklahoma. Wilkerson is responsible for recruiting and working with the Branch's board of directors and for briefing the Kansas City Fed's president — a member of the Federal Open Market Committee — on economic activity in the state. His research focuses on trends in the industrial structure and labor markets of the Tenth Federal Reserve District. He also supervises several business surveys for the Kansas City Fed.

Event Overview

Please join the RMA Oklahoma Chapter for our fall event on December 20 (Tulsa) and December 21 (OKC). Come open your holiday season with your fellow risk management professionals and hear what Chad Wilkerson has to say regarding the economy and implications for 2016 regionally and nationwide.
