

Let's Celebrate the Rocket® Forum!

1 We're proud to celebrate the first anniversary of our Rocket Forum!

In a single year, the Forum has produced:

20,000
interactions between members

48,000
visits by 28,000
individuals

200,000
page views

21,000
posts and comments

Our values win every time, as helpful members embrace empathy and humanity to share their expertise with new learners:

17 public, product-specific forums launched

8 early adopter/beta programs run, driving product success

The Rocket Community is the first place I go when I feel like I have no idea what I am doing. There is a friendly, engaging community of Rocketeers, always at the ready to help out. I appreciate that the average Community Member will go out of their way to not just give an answer to a question/problem but also explain why they recommend their answer as the correct one.

— NIC DAVIDSON, DEVELOPER, COMBINED TRANSPORT, INC. (UNITED STATES)

Together, we're building a growing community that boasts:

447
unique contributors

151
Rocketeer contributors

1700
members

Any way you look at it, the Rocket Community shows members what support really means, resulting in milestones like:

OUR BEST MONTH OVERALL (APRIL '21):
5,500 unique visitors
7,200 total visits

OUR BEST MONTH FOR VISITS (MARCH '21):
24,400 page views

The forums are a great place to gain insights from other developers. The more people share their experiences, the more we all learn from each other and the better we become collectively as developers.

— WALTER KEISS, IT MANAGER, POLICE SUPERANNUATION BOARD (AUSTRALIA)

Engagement and always-on support create amazing outcomes:

2 million
engagement points awarded

7+ mins
on the site per visit

14,000
logins

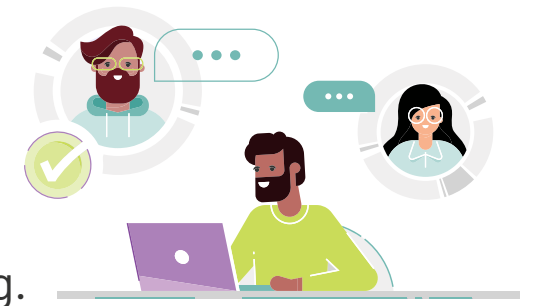

The forum connects you with other experienced people, so you're never alone.

— ALAN MILES, OWNER, AMBA LTD (NEW ZEALAND)

"You're never alone."

And that's what it's really all about. This year we needed community more than ever, and we're building a place to share, support, and strengthen each other.

Keep coming back. Keep connecting. Keep asking and keep giving. Together, we're creating something worth celebrating.

Celebrate with us!
