

The Educational Theatre Association supports fair and equitable compensation for theatre educators nationwide. We also believe that the curriculum, professional development, resources, safety, and facilities criteria detailed in the 2016 Opportunity-to-Learn Standards for Theatre Education are essential to the ongoing commitment of teachers working to deliver a well-rounded education that includes theatre and other arts to all students.

James Palmarini

EdTA Director of Educational Policy