2018 SITC-Bristol-Myers Squibb Postdoctoral Cancer Immunotherapy Translational Fellowship Award

Two Years • $200,000 Award
Submission Period Closes Tuesday, February 20, 2018

This fellowship award will help support the development of the next generation of immunotherapy experts who have a vested interest in furthering the research and translation of cancer immunotherapy.

Eligibility Criteria
- Current SITC member
- Hold an MD, PhD or combined MD/PhD degree
- Currently hold a position at a leading academic cancer center as a postdoctoral fellow, resident, research scientist or comparable position
- Be within postdoctoral or postgraduate training, or no more than four years from completing such training
- Commit 75 percent of workday to research supported by the fellowship

Benefits
- Two year, $200,000 award
- Complimentary registration and travel for SITC’s 33rd Annual Meeting
- Recognition during the Award Ceremony at SITC’s 33rd Annual Meeting

Contact development@sitcancer.org for details or visit sitcancer.org/fellowships