

2018 KM Division Executive Board

The SLA Knowledge Management Division Executive Board consists of these elected positions: Chair, Chair-Elect, Past Chair (Nominations), Secretary, Treasurer.

Elected Board members vote on issues brought before the Board, including budget expenditures. and changes in procedures and structure.

Chair

Billy Cook

ADP, Manager of Knowledge Management
wdcook12<at>gmail<dot>com

Billy Cook (MSLS '12) was a successful sales manager in the aerospace industry before fate (aka economic recession) brought him to the School of Information and Library Science at UNC-Chapel Hill. Since graduating with his master's degree, he has delivered a Knowledge Management (KM) solution for Al Akhawayn University in Morocco, kick-started KM for a division of Corning Inc., and implemented and governed enterprise-wide KM initiatives at Cigna and ADP. Billy is currently on the Enterprise Learning extended leadership team at ADP where he provides strategic direction and consultation on learning and knowledge-related activities for the Compliance Solutions division. In his spare hours, Billy is a full-time student in the Masters of Science in Instructional Design and Technology program at California State University at Fullerton.

Past Chair (Nominations)

Marianne Giltrud, MSLS

megiltrud<at>gmail<dot>com

Marianne Giltrud is Faculty Librarian/Assistant Professor at the Prince George's Community College (PGCC) where she heads the information literacy instruction program. She is the PGCC Faculty Senate Secretary. Marianne joined PGCC from the Catholic University of America University Libraries where she was an Embedded Librarian and an Adjunct Faculty, in the Department of Library Science.

In, 2014, her book chapter, “From Smorgasbord to Sous-Chef: Communities of Practice in Information Literacy,” was published by the Association of College and Research Libraries, in the Embedded Librarian’s Cookbook. It articulates her vision of developing a knowledge sharing and strategic learning culture in higher education.

Marianne innovates, educates and advances teaching and learning to achieve a clear and focused potential.

Marianne holds a Master’s of Science in Library and Information Science from the Catholic University of America and a BS in Psychology from the University of Maryland.

Secretary

Benjamin Wolf

Charles Aris Inc. | ben<dot>wolf<at>charlesaris<dot>com

Ben serves as a researcher for executive search firm Charles Aris Inc. in Greensboro, N.C., where he focuses his enterprise efforts in the industrial and technology sectors. Ben previously worked as the evening reference librarian at High Point University. The SLA role of KM Division Secretary marks his first foray into the Association.

Ben earned his MLIS degree at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and his bachelor’s degree in philosophy from Northern Arizona University.

Treasurer

Bill Lee

mmlee<at>flash<dot>net

Retired now, Bill has worked for Fluor Engineers, Southern California Edison and Experian. Bill performs Treasurer’s duties and maintains the division’s website and administers the Connect communities. Bill also administers the website for the Southern California Chapter and serves as their Treasurer.

2018 KM Division Advisory Board

The KM Advisory Board consists of four committees: Communications, Education, Strategic Planning, and Outreach. Advisory Board positions were streamlined in 2013 to allow more members opportunities to participate in Division projects while making each activity manageable for busy individuals. Read on to learn about our Advisory Board and the Committees each chairs. If you are interested in working on a committee, contact the chair for more information.

Communications

The Communications Committee develops a strategy to communicate with and engage division members. The Committee maintains the SLA Connect communities and keeps division members informed about SLA and Division news and activities, and develops content for all of the KM social media outlets, the website, and the blog. The Committee develops and maintains the KM website to meet member needs. Communications Committee Members are also part of the Education Committee. If you have questions or comments on this website, please contact our webmaster, Bill Lee, at mmlee@flash.net

Education/Professional Development

The Education Committee encompasses conference planning (current year + next year); CE courses, webinars; KM graduate programs/students; internships; and, mentoring.

Therese Mainville-Curso

therese.mainville-celso@mail.mcgill.ca

Therese is in her last year of McGill's Master of Information Studies program. Passionate about KM, her goal is to help organizations become more efficient and innovative in their work. A lifelong learner, she seeks any opportunity for growth especially if it involves creating her own experiences. She is currently the president of the McGill SLA Student Association and is doing an internship as a KM consultant for the McGill IT Services department. She also works as a freelance taxonomy consultant. Understanding the value of personal growth in professional settings, she recently did a talk at the Congrès des Professionnels et Professionnels/les de l'Information in Montreal on the importance of student attendance at conferences where she encourages students to learn from the experiences of others and build their network. "You have to create your own luck sometimes" is her motto. After her degree, Therese aspires to be a KM consultant.

I'll be the Education/Professional Development Chair position for the SLA KM Division.

Strategic Planning and Governance

This committee is tasked with future planning for the division to meet current and anticipated needs of division members. The committee is also charged with creating/revising division governing documents (currently residing on the wiki), archives, and awards.

Outreach

The Outreach committee manages member relations, including membership and recruiting; interacts with other KM groups (online, such as LinkedIn and Twitter) and associations; and maintains relationships with KM-related sponsors and partners.
