This is episode 15 of the podcast Eagles, Globes, and Anchors from the Marine Corps War College (MCWAR) featuring our host, Dr. William Morgan, Director of the Diplomacy and Statecraft Course at the Marine Corps War College. Dr. Morgan's guest is Dr. Eugene Rumer of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. Dr. Morgan's guest discusses multiple topics related to Russia. Eagles, Globes, and Anchors is the strategically-minded podcast of the Marine Corps War College, covering the intersection of strategy, security, and warfare. The Marine Corps War College, as the senior PME institution of the Marine Corps, educates selected military and civilian professionals in order to develop critical thinkers, military strategists, joint warfighters and strategic leaders who are prepared to meet the challenges of a complex and dynamic security environment. The views expressed in this podcast reflect those of the speakers and do not necessarily reflect the views, policies, or positions of the United States Marine Corps or Department of Defense. You can follow the Marine Corps War College on Twitter, Instagram, and Facebook at @mcwarcollege. (Podcast created by: US Air Force Lt Col Jason Palma)
