

Special Libraries Association, Military Libraries Division (DMIL)

STUDENT LIAISON UPDATE
February 2020

The following resources were compiled by DMIL for the interest of current students and recent graduates in library and information science.

Internships, Fellowships & Jobs

Internship, Naval History and Heritage Command (Washington, DC).

“The NHHC offers internships to students who wish to have professional work experience in areas related to their educational programs and career goals. In addition to undertaking historical research, writing and editing, the NHHC operates the Navy Department Library, The National Museum of the United States Navy, and maintains collections of naval archives, photographs, artifacts, and art. Internships are available in all of these areas. The Command is located in the Washington Navy Yard, 805 Kidder Breese Street SE, Washington, D.C. “
