

A “Triple Header” in Pittsburgh

A city known for its love of sports, Pittsburgh is ready for a busy week in October, where the brightest minds in mining will participate in three consecutive events (also known as “Triple-Header”) to capture the latest developments of the PA/OH/WV tri-state region.

Meeting in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, Engineers, Environmentalists, Academia, Students, Industry and OEMs will be attending the events below, which will cover a variety of technologies, advancements, and perspectives.

Pittsburgh Mining Triple-Header Details

Who: Society of Mining, Metallurgy and Exploration (SME)-Pittsburgh Chapter, Pittsburgh Coal Mining Institute of America (PCMIA), Coal Trends, The Pennsylvania Coal Alliance (PCA)

What: Three unique back-to-back mining events, focusing on innovation, connection, and safety

When: Monday through Friday, October 20-24, 2025

Where: Hilton Garden Inn – Southpointe, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, USA

Event #1: America’s Coal Revolution Conference & Exhibit 2025

Covering Monday and Tuesday, Jimmy Brock of Core Natural Resources kicks off the 2-day future-facing event, focusing on disruptive & new tech powering the next era of coal.

Event #2: 2025 SME PCMIA Annual Joint Meeting

On Wednesday and Thursday, celebrating 80th and 138th milestones, respectively, for their annual conference, SME Pittsburgh section and PCMIA worked together to create a 2-day event which encourages attendees to exchange valuable insight, relay innovation and create new connections with academia/industry/community. Expect unique and diverse presentations at the consortium of life-long learning, via the annual joint conference. Twelve (12) Professional Development Hours (PDH) are available, based on attendance.

Event #3: 2025 PCMIA/PCA Mine Safety & Health Seminar

On Friday, the PCMIA/PCA join to provide a human-centric seminar, focusing on the safety and health of all who operate within and around the mining industry. Five (5) PDHs are being offered, to ensure the advancement of industry with the latest education.
