Construction is by design accepted as a high risk industry. Throw in the dynamic marine environment and the risks and associated costs involved multiply exponentially. To understand the available Insurance Policy products and be prepared for the worst should there be an ‘occurrence’ should be at the forefront of all parties who ‘enter the water at their own peril’.

A brief review of the main off the shelf insurance products available, understand the concepts, triggers and pitfalls that need to be considered by all parties under the Contract to progress to settlement.

Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Certificates will be available if requested.
