Dear CS4 Members:

You are cordially invited to the 51st Annual Meeting of the Council of State Social Studies Specialists (CS4) to be held in Washington, D.C. November 29 to December 1, 2016 at the Washington D.C. Marriott Marquis. You can register by using this link: Registration - http://bit.ly/CS4reg16

The CS4 Annual Meeting is an unparalleled opportunity for professional development geared specifically to the rarefied work of state social studies leaders. The challenges and opportunities unique to our work require networking with other state leaders. The annual meeting is being designed with your professional needs in mind. Our recent survey of CS4 members and their session preferences was used to design the meeting agenda. More information about the Annual Meeting can be found at the CS4 home page: <http://cs4.socialstudies.org/annualmeeting/new-item3>

We have had success in locating wonderful sponsors to underwrite most of our meals for this annual meeting, so some of the travel costs associated with this event have been reduced.

Our CS4 Annual Meeting will begin with an evening session and welcoming dinner on Tuesday, November 29, and conclude with an evening session and gift exchange on Thursday, December 1. The NCSS Annual Conference will commence on Friday, December 2 and conclude on Sunday, December 4.

Our 51st Annual Meeting promises to be a memorable and productive event, where we can renew our dedication to the vital role of social studies in education, and we hope you will be able to join us.

Sincerely,

Robert Austin, President

CS4 is an associated group of the National Council for the Social Studies and is a vehicle for the exchange of ideas among the specialists, consultants, and supervisors who have responsibilities for social studies education in the various state departments of education/public instruction.
