

21.4.2015 (1:30pm) — 22.4.2015 (1:00 pm)

Celle Congress Union, directly before the DGMK / ÖGEW-Frühjahrstagung

This workshop is primarily considered for engineers and geoscientists in the oil and gas industry, with few years working experience (Young Professionals) and of age below 35. Attendees from similar industries and disciplines are likewise welcome.

3rd Young Professionals Workshop

Career without borders

Purpose of this event is to provide Young Professionals an opportunity to elaborate and discuss potential ways towards building up their career. Discussions and exchange of experience with senior and young managers will be possible as well as with their colleagues in similar situations. The event thus helps to create networks within our industry.

Organizers

Oksana Zhebel
(RWE Dea)

Edna Bisso
(RWE Dea)

Manuel Krebs
(Weatherford)

Anna Langholf
(Wintershall)

Sameh Mahmoud
(Baker Hughes)

Kashif Saeed
(GDF SUEZ)

Maximilian Scholze
(DMT Petrologic)

Are you interested in the international career but not sure how to steer towards it? Are you wondering if it is necessary to have international experience to stay competitive in the future? Are you excited about working abroad but feel overwhelmed by such a decision? How can you switch your career path and what difficulties await you on this road?

This workshop will feature a panel of (former) managers from the E&P sector with international experience. Thus, it provides a great possibility to discuss these issues and get worthwhile insights into the personal experience of the speakers. These soft skills' topics will be addressed in different formats such as presentations, discussion groups and a moderated BarCamp.

Workshop fee: Early bird (till 5.2.15): 70€
Members (GSSPE/DGMK): 90 €
Non-members: 120 €

Further Information:
<http://connect.spe.org/Germany/home/>
Contact: Oksana.zhebel@rwe.com

Registration per email to:
heike.preusse@bakerhughes.com
Deadline: 27th March, 2015