

Personal: epotthast@satx.rr.com
School: erich.potthast@student.tamuk.edu

14007 George Rd., San Antonio, TX
Mobile: (210)-542-3426

Erich D. Potthast

OBJECTIVE: To acquire an internship or shadowing position that will enhance my engineering skills and abilities

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering Expected Graduation: 2017
Texas A&M University – Kingsville GPA: 3.63
Member of the Honors College

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Internal Vice President of Society of Petroleum Engineers (SPE) Fall 2014-Current
- Organized and assisted in the development of TAMUK's first annual Eagle Ford Center for Research, Education and Outreach (EFCREO) conference Spring 2015
- Acquired current petroleum industry insight from engineering lectures presented by various upstream/downstream companies such as EOG, Halliburton, Schlumberger, Mustang, etc.
- Possess knowledge in basic chemical engineering fundamentals based on courses such as Conservation Principles, Thermodynamics I, & Fluid Transport Phenomena
- Completed Honors sections of Inorganic Chemistry I and II, and Differential Equations

OFFICER/LEADERSHIP POSITIONS

President of House Council (volunteered) Spring 2015-Current
Resident Advisor for Mesquite Village West at TAMUK (interviewed) Fall 2014-Current
Honors College Student Council Underclassman Representative (elected) Fall 2013-Spring 2015
Social Committee in TAMUK Wildlife Society (volunteered) Fall 2013

HONORS

Dean's List Spring, Fall 2014
Resident Advisor of the Semester Spring 2014
President's List Fall 2013
TAMUK Presidential Scholarship Recipient

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Member, SPE Fall 2013-Current
House Council Spring 2015-Current
Honors College Student Council Fall 2013-Spring 2015
TAMUK Wildlife Society Fall 2013

SKILLS

- Quickly able to adapt to various work environments and assigned tasks
- Timeline proficiency with assignments and work effectively with others
- Able to enforce organization or company procedures and guidelines
- Possess the ability to organize and develop events or meetings in given time frames