

2014 ENGINEER OF THE YEAR

Dallas Section

RICHARD LEMON

2014 ENGINEER OF THE YEAR

Richard Lemon is an independent petroleum consultant with thirty years of experience in the energy industry, primarily in upstream oil and gas. He has held engineering and management positions for several independent producers with responsibility over operations in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and the Rockies. His areas of expertise include production operations, reservoir economics and drilling and completions.

Richard is a native Texan, having been born in Lubbock and raised in El Paso. He attended the University of Texas where he received his Bachelor's Degree in Petroleum Engineering. At UT, he was a member of Tau Beta Pi, Pi Epsilon Tau and the Student Chapter of the Society of Petroleum Engineers. Richard has held multiple volunteer leadership positions with his church, the Boy Scouts and the Y-Guides, and is currently serving as Vice President of his homeowners association. He was Chairman of the Dallas Section of the Society of Petroleum Engineers for the 2012 to 2013 program year, has chaired various committees with the Society over the years and is currently a member of the Board of Directors.

Other activities include travel and geocaching. Richard and his wife, Debbie, have visited 42 of the United States and over 20 countries in North America, Europe, Asia and Africa.

He is the proud father of three children. Richard's wife, Debbie, is an inventor, entrepreneur and business owner. Together, they live in Carrollton with their two golden retrievers.

Engineer's Week
2014 AWARDS EVENT