Event: Chad T. Hammond – DCiii – Optimizing Chemical Injection Programs through Advanced Control, Monitoring, Data, and Transparency

BIOGRAPHY:

DCiii is a private family business that believes in integrity and respect. DCiii was formed in 2016 to help our customers in the downturn to reduce OPEX and keep fields operating. Our goal has always been to create the industry's best tools and products for Oil & Gas producers to achieve better control, transparency, and usage of chemicals.

LOCATIONS IN CORPUS CHRISTI, HOUSTON, AND MIDLAND.

ABSTRACT:

DCiii is a full solutions provider that helps customers lower chemical costs, protect critical assets, improve EH&S (Environmental, Health & Safety), reduce variance, and bring chemical programs into the modern world.

- Control LOE / Reduce Spend 20% - 50%
- Optimize Injection & Protect Your Assets
- Force Vendor Transparency and Collaboration
- Improve Safety and Environmental Concerns
- Unlimited Data and Control 24/7
- ROI is Seen in 4 Days to 3 Months
