

14th East Meets West Congress Partnership Offer 2026

International Student Petroleum Congress
AGH University of Krakow May 5-7 2026

Where East Meets West

For over fifteen years, the East Meets West Congress has been a landmark event for aspiring engineers across Europe – a highlight of their academic and professional calendars. It has long served as an international meeting point where technology students come together to exchange knowledge, share experiences, and build meaningful connections.

This year, the Congress is expanding its horizons by welcoming young professionals from the Oil & Gas industry. Organized alongside the Oil and Gas Conference at AGH University in Krakow, East Meets West provides a remarkable platform for students and professionals at every career stage to learn from one another and explore the future of the energy sector together.

This unique collaboration presents an excellent opportunity for your company to enhance its visibility, connect with emerging talent, and engage with the next generation of industry leaders.

Krakow: City Where History Meets Future

Krakow, renowned as one of Europe's most picturesque cities, enchants visitors with its stunning architecture, captivating ambiance, and rich cultural heritage. Once the capital of Poland, this historic city has evolved into a dynamic hub for students, artists, and scholars, seamlessly blending its majestic past with a lively academic and creative spirit. It's a place where many who visit find themselves reluctant to leave.

Balancing tradition with innovation, Krakow epitomizes the essence of "Where East Meets West."

Innovation

This year, East Meets West will delve into the challenges and opportunities brought by the Fourth Industrial Revolution. The Congress will center on shaping the future of the Oil & Gas sector through digital transformation, machine learning, and artificial intelligence. Designed as an engaging platform for knowledge exchange, it seeks to connect the creative drive of students with the practical expertise of industry professionals.

Unity

The Congress presents an excellent opportunity for young minds and experienced professionals to come together, for students to meet potential employers, and for the industry to engage with future business partners. It's a place to exchange fresh ideas, gain new perspectives, and build meaningful connections that can shape future careers. Participants will also have the chance to learn about the latest trends and innovations driving their fields forward.

Where Global Minds Connect

The East Meets West Conference brings together professionals and visionaries from across the globe. It's a place where cultures, ideas, and innovations connect — creating a truly international community of forward-thinking minds. Attendees can share their experiences, discover new opportunities, and build lasting partnerships.

It's also a chance to get inspired by thought leaders and explore how global collaboration can drive meaningful change.
