What is the role of a department chair?

"An online program would solve this problem."	"This is batshit crazy."	"This gives me an idea for a new master's program."	"This is probably illegal to say, but..."	"Did you just say that out loud?"
"It's an issue of inter-departmental equity." ("Bullshit. I want my way.")	"My department needs more resources."	"I don't have enough faculty to teach these classes."	"We need to increase revenue."	"The dean is an excellent fundraiser."
"No."	"Will students learn more?" (This one will never be selected.)	FREE SPACE: "It looks like we are running over time."	"Sustainability."	Dean says, "We are having a great year!" (Facilitation required, sarcasm proffered.)
"You need to unmute yourself."	"Where's lunch?"	"I'll come to your office." (They will never come.)	"Where is [the one chair who is ALWAYS late]?"	"Let's refer that to a committee."
"Task force."	"Research only matters with full grant funding."	"Does anyone know how our peer schools do this?"	"Nonetheless, you are all doing a great job."	"Let's schedule another meeting for tomorrow."
