Identify the corresponding author when there are two or more authors. Follow-up:

1. Papers are first reviewed by the Journal Editor-in-Chief for applicability within the mission of the Journal of Research Administration. They are then assigned for peer review to an Editorial Board member. Each manuscript undergoes rigorous editorial review and critique by the Journal Editorial Board. Finally, all manuscripts must be approved by the Editor-in-Chief but only after successful peer review and editorial approval.

Signature on this form is a confirmation of authorship, including the designation of the corresponding author. In the case of a manuscript attributed to multiple authors, each must sign an author agreement form before the manuscript can be considered for publication. A separate request will be sent to each author for electronic signature by SRAI.

My signature below acknowledges that I agree fully agree with the following six sections below as checked:

1. Original work. I affirm that the submitted manuscript reflects my (and the other named authors) original work; that none of the material has been previously published, except as noted in the author's note and no part of this work will be considered an infringement of copyright or an invasion of privacy. I further affirm that this work is not under consideration by any other publisher or media and I grant permission to publish it in a forthcoming issue.

2. Authorship certification. I fulfilled the requirements of authorship as reflected on the journal web page by the society's policies adopted from the 2001 guidelines Uniform Requirements for Manuscripts Submitted to Biomedical Journals from the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMEJ).
3. I have/have not used Artificial Intelligence to assist with writing or editing the submitted manuscript. (if AI has been used, please provide a separate statement of what program(s)/app(s) and the specifics of how these were used to prepare, edit, or otherwise assist in the development of the manuscript.
4. Conflict of interest. I affirm that I have no financial or other conflict of interest in the subject or materials presented in this manuscript except as disclosed in the attached referenced document on potential or actual conflict of interest.
5. Institutional approval. I affirm that the appropriate institutional review board, or equivalent, approved the study and protocol of any human research described in this manuscript and I agree to provide evidence of approval if appropriate. Or, I affirm that institutional approval was not needed for the work described in or related to this manuscript.
6. License of copyright. I hereby grant to SRAI and their publication the Journal of Research Administration for the full term of copyright in my manuscript entitled and any extensions thereto the non-exclusive right throughout the world to edit, adapt, translate, publish, reproduce, distribute and display the article in printed, electronic or any other medium and format whether now known or yet to be developed; I agree to allow SRAI to publish the article and associated supplementary material under a CC-BY license.
