

Zolicia R. Abotsi, MBA, CRA

Interim Director, Office of Sponsored Programs & Research | Baruch College

Zolicia R. Abotsi is the Interim Director of the Office of Sponsored Programs & Research at Baruch College. She is a Certified Research Administrator (CRA) with over 15 years of progressive experience in sponsored project management, budget analysis and development, and compliance. Zolicia is a content expert that excels in program development and evaluation. Her ability to troubleshoot, provide solutions, and improve financial compliance makes her an asset and a valuable resource to her team. Ms. Abotsi holds a Masters of Business Administration degree from the Zicklin School of Business and a Bachelor's degree from City College.