

SOCIETY OF RESEARCH
ADMINISTRATORS
INTERNATIONAL

Leslie Levine, M.S., CRA

Director, Marianna Dietrich College of Humanities and Social Sciences Research Office |
Carnegie Mellon University

Leslie Levine, M.S., CRA, is a research administrator with over 30 years' experience in the administration and management of university pre- and post-award services. Leslie holds a master's degree in psychology from the State University of New York at Albany.

Leslie is the inaugural Director, Marianna Dietrich College of Humanities & Social Sciences Research Office at Carnegie Mellon University (CMU). She provides personalized pre- and post-award assistance to department personnel, PIs and PDs for all manner of sponsored research and projects applications and awards. While currently working in research and sponsored funds administration her work experience includes financial, facilities, academic, and student services domains in private and public institutions small and large.

At CMU Leslie is a former co-chair and current governing board member of the university's Research Administrators Council, and a regular content presenter at these meetings. Leslie has also developed and presented training programs for the university's Research Administration curriculum and non-curriculum Training Series and Professional Development Seminar Series.

Leslie has developed and presented +30 sessions and discussion groups at local, regional, and national research professional's meetings. She serves SRAI currently as a member of the Financial Management, and Research Contracts and Law Working Groups, and is a past Speakers Bureau member.