

SOCIETY OF RESEARCH
ADMINISTRATORS
INTERNATIONAL

Dominic Esposito, M.S., CRA

Director of Sponsored Programs Administration | Farmingdale State College

Dominic Esposito, M.S., CRA, has been in the field of research administration since 1997 and currently serves as the Director of Sponsored Programs Administration at Farmingdale State College. Dominic received a Master of Science in Computer Science from Lehman College, CUNY and met the requirements to become a Certified Research Administrator in 2009. Prior to his arrival at the Farmingdale State, he served as the Director of Corporate, Foundation and Government Relations at The College of New Rochelle, Director of Sponsored Programs and Research (SPAR) at Baruch College of the City University of New York (CUNY), Inaugural Director of Grants Administration at Manhattan College, Director of Operations and Research at the CUNY Institute for Demographic Research, Project Associate on a U.S. Department of Education GEAR UP grant and Electronic Research Administration Specialist and Associate Director at Lehman College. He regularly attends and presents at SRA regional and national meetings and is always seeking to enhance the research administration profession by sharing information with his peers and inviting them to participate in professional development activities. Dominic regularly explores collaborative efforts with his SRA colleagues strongly believes that SRA is the industry standard in delivering top-quality educational material to a national network of research administration professionals.