

SOCIETY OF RESEARCH
ADMINISTRATORS
INTERNATIONAL

Judy Bristow

Director, Office of Sponsored Programs | University of Louisville

Judy Bristow is the Director of Sponsored Programs at the University of Louisville where her primary responsibility is oversight of proposal and award administration for externally funded sponsored programs. Judy's university career has included roles in departmental administration, central administration and both pre- and post-award directorships.

As an active member of the Society of Research Administration International, Judy is currently a co-coordinator of the Basics Programs. Past roles within the Society include serving as Co-chair of two Annual Meetings; two-terms on the Board of Directors including a one-term appointment to the Executive Committee and presentations at traveling Basics Meetings, Regional/Sectional and Annual Meetings. Judy formerly served as the SRAI

Southern Section President in 2009-2010 and is a recipient of the Hartford-Nicholsen award.