Experience

Mitchell Trager, JD, LL.M. is a Senior Manager in FORVIS' tax practice where he focuses on incentives and credits. Mitch is in the Atlanta office and serves both public and private clients, nationally and internationally. Mitch brings decades of experience in corporate tax as well as a thorough understanding in the credits and incentives area. Having spent over 34 years as senior tax counsel for a large public company and one of the largest private companies in the world, Mitch has extensive experience in navigating the approval, implementation, and follow-up work that makes a project successful. Mitch's experience over the years in Federal Audits, Fixed Assets, R & D Tax Credit, and other Indirect Tax Issues, allows Mitch to also provide valuable insight as to other potential opportunities.

Notably, Mitch has recently completed his term as International President for 2021 – 2022 of Tax Executives Institute ("TEI") where he proudly served in many leadership roles over 30 years. This volunteer position highlights his skill and ability to lead teams and initiate change.
