

Ciara Murabito

Ciara Murabito has been a practicing Registered Dietitian Nutritionist for one year in the Chicagoland area. Ciara is new to the renal world as a Renal Dietitian after previous experience in clinical nutrition. Ciara completed her undergraduate education at Southern Illinois University and received her Master's degree and Dietetic Internship from Dominican University. Ciara currently is President-Elect for Northwest Indiana Dietetics group and a member of the National Kidney Foundation. She would enjoy the opportunity to promote the profession of renal nutrition. She loves volunteering for professional organizations and improving her networking.
