

Innovation: A Focus on Clinical Practice

DHCC Virtual Symposium 2022

Tuesdays @ 12 pm ET ~ January 18 & January 25

Join us for 5 hours CPEU web-based education with 4 engaging expert speakers!
Each 2.5-hour session includes 2 expert speakers followed by Q&A.

January 18th Sessions:

- Ethics in Nutrition at End of Life
 - Speaker: Katie Dodd, MS, RDN, CSG, LD, FAND
 - Define ethics and common ethics terminology
 - Identify potential ethics issues in nutrition at end of life
 - Practice ethical decision making
- Dietary Supplements: Uses and Concerns for Older Adults in Post-Acute Care
 - Speaker: Jake Mey, PhD, RDN
 - List commonly used dietary supplements for older adults
 - Utilize core resources for up-to-date dietary supplement information
 - Identify evidence-based dietary supplements to aid in mobility recover in older adults

January 25th Sessions:

- Fuel to Heal: Nutrition Essentials for Pressure Injury Management
 - Speaker: Mary Ellen Posthauer, RDN, CD, LD, FAND
 - Examine the relationship of malnutrition, frailty, and sarcopenia on wound healing
 - Identify the key changes in the nutrition evidence in the 2019 International Presentation and Treatment of Pressure Injuries Clinical Practice Guideline
 - Translate nutrition recommendations into practical solutions that impact positive patient outcomes
- Malnutrition Care: Person-Centered Strategies to Improve Quality Outcomes
 - Speaker: Amanda Goldman, MS, RD, LD, FAND
 - Define how social isolation is associated with an increased risk of malnutrition in older adults
 - State examples of the impact of malnutrition on quality-of-care outcomes
 - Illustrate malnutrition intervention strategies that promote positive quality outcomes

Virtual Symposium Early Discounted Fees

Early Bird pricing before 12/13/21

DHCC DPG Member - $20.00 per Session

DHCC DPG Student or Retired Member - $10.00 per Session

Other - $30.00 per Session