EVENT ATTENDEES

The oncology Registered Dietitian Nutritionist (RDN) is the key interdisciplinary team member to address nutrition-related issues experienced by patients living with and beyond cancer.

The oncology RDN supports patients with cancer by applying their expertise to suggest products that are clinically appropriate and can best meet their patients' individual needs. We anticipate more than 400 oncology RDNs to attend this event in-person. Attendees work in NCI-designated comprehensive cancer centers, community cancer centers, private practices, academia, non-profit, and entrepreneurial settings.

OTHER SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR 2026 SYMPOSIUM

In addition to our tiered sponsorship packages, we warmly welcome sponsorship of other events and activities planned during the 2026 symposium program.

PRE-SYMPOSIUM COURSES AND SUNRISE YOGA

We are hosting two pre-symposium courses with ~ 100 attendees at each course in-person and others joining virtually. The courses will focus on updates in nutritional care blood and marrow transplant and cellular therapy recipients (BMT Pre-symposium course) and oncology nutrition fundamentals (Adult Nutrition Fundamentals course). We will also host a sunrise yoga event on Saturday morning.

Commitment: $5,000

MEAL AND COFFEE/SNACK REFRESHMENT BREAKS

Opportunity to cover the cost of meals, including breakfast, lunch, and coffee/snack breaks. Signage will be posted at meal(s) recognizing sponsorship. Product/ingredient can be incorporated into the meal/snack when appropriate, per leadership and venue approvals.

Commitment: $1,000 for coffee/snack break; $3,000 for breakfast or lunch meal

EVENING EVENT (if sponsorship received)

We are currently only hosting one evening member reception on Saturday. However, we are open to coordinating and hosting an additional evening reception on Friday, if we receive sufficient sponsorship funding. We are considering an additional non-CEU speaker or moderated event such as Death over Dinner. We are also looking for sponsors to support our currently planned member reception on Saturday evening.

Commitment: $10,000

NUTRITION DELIVERY WORKSHOP

As part of the symposium program, we are developing a nutrition delivery workshop for our attendees. This workshop is intended to introduce oncology RDNs to the tools and technology available to deliver nutrition to their patients, enterally or parenterally. If your company has a product that you would like to showcase and have focused education on, we are looking for industry partners to present at this event.

Commitment: $5,000

PRODUCTS/READING MATERIAL INCLUDED IN SYMPOSIUM GIFT BAGS

Unable to join us in San Diego? Not a problem! We are happy to include physical materials, coupons, or promotional products/materials in the gift bags provided to our attendees. These bags will be provided to attendees at registration and used by the attendees throughout the duration of the event.

Commitment: $2,000 plus cost of shipping/handling/storing per host hotel guidelines

DINNER/HAPPY HOUR MEET-AND-GREETS WITH ONCOLOGY NUTRITION EXPERTS

Sponsors can meet with sub-unit leaders (e.g., Blood and Marrow Transplantation, Pediatrics) (Friday evening), executive committee leaders (Friday evening), or other conference attendees (Friday or Saturday evening) over a dinner meal. The sponsor may bring a speaker with content reviewed by the ON DPG leadership prior to the event. The length of presentation may not be longer than 15 minutes. The date, location, and coordination of invitations is at the discretion of the ON DPG leadership.

Commitment: $5,000 plus cost of meal and beverages for attendees.

ON DPG CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM PRINCIPLES

The Oncology Nutrition Dietetic Practice Group (ON DPG) of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics adheres to the guidelines and guiding principles of the Academy's Corporate Sponsorship Program Principles in its relationship with sponsors. We also abide by the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) policies as a CPEU Prior Approval Program Provider.

In addition, the ON DPG adheres to the following principles:

1. All sponsorships must meet the goals of and be consistent with approved programs and projects of the ON DPG.
2. Sponsorships require a Letter of Agreement (LOA) between the sponsor and the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics on behalf of the ON DPG.
3. All sponsorships are reviewed and approved by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. A summary of ON sponsors can be found in the annual report on the website.
4. ON DPG sponsorships are limited to those that promote products and services related to oncology nutrition.
5. All sponsor materials, presentations and information and claims are to be referenced, and are subject to review.
6. Novel products, therapies, and treatments are to be clearly identified as investigational.
7. The ON DPG maintains editorial control and final approval of all sponsored materials and sponsored programs. Revisions and clarifications may be required prior to acceptance. Each promotion may be limited to word count, size of picture, etc.
8. The ON DPG does not endorse any company, brand or company products. The ON DPG programs, leadership, decisions, policies and positions are not influenced by sponsorship.
9. Education materials that are part of CPE content (such as slides, handouts, etc.) must not contain any logos, trade names, or product group messages or images.

Cancellation Policy: If the cessation is by the SPONSOR, ON/Academy shall issue a full refund to the SPONSOR if cancellation is made 60 days prior to the first day of the symposium. If the cancellation is made less than 60 days before the first day of the Symposium, ON/Academy shall issue a 50% refund, or SPONSOR may have the option to adjust deliverables (to be determined between ON/ACADEMY and SPONSOR).

Thank you for your generous consideration of supporting the success of our event and the professional development of our oncology dietitian members! We cannot wait to see you in sunny San Diego in April!

Kindest Regards,

Peter
