

RELIEF FOUNDATION

The Missouri Association of REALTORS® established the Missouri REALTOR® Relief Foundation to provide relief to those suffering from natural or manmade disasters which result in damages affecting the ability of owners of real estate to enjoy the fruits of ownership, affects the ability of REALTORS® to practice their trade or in any other way affects the usage, enjoyment, or the effectiveness of real estate.

Minimum Qualifications to Request Assistance

Applicants must be a member of the Missouri REALTOR® family (REALTOR® Members, and staff of MO REALTORS/Local Boards) prior to the disaster and whose home or real estate office has sustained serious physical and/or structural damage to include but not limited to water intrusion. The following types of damages do not qualify for assistance from the Disaster Relief Fund: loss of or damage to outbuildings, cars, boats & recreational vehicles, pool & patio enclosures, pool pumps or pool equipment, blown shingles, personal property, landscaping including downed trees & debris removal, loss of perishable food, fencing, driveways & sidewalks, office signage, other minor damage and loss of income.

How to Apply For Relief Assistance

Attach the following items:
