The WGCA Freshman of the Year Award is awarded annually to the top Freshman in Division I, II, III and NAIA women's golf. Freshmen must have competed in a minimum of five competitive rounds to be considered. The recipient is selected by a prestigious collection of women's collegiate golf coaches who follow criteria that has been established to identify the top freshman for the past year. These criteria include:

- Adjusted scoring average for the year.
- Place finishes in regular season events.
- Head to head comparisons against the top 60 in the Golfstat Rankings.
- Comparison of Common Opponents.
- Strength of Schedule.

A native of Agoura Hills, Calif., Mascot posted a scoring average of 72.55 and recorded rounds in the 70s or lower in all 11 rounds she played in during the 2019-20 season. She finished in the top-three in every tournament, including wins at the I-70 Dual, Rhodes Classic and Arkansas State Lady Red Wolves Classic. Throughout her freshman campaign, she broke school records in single season scoring average, 36-hole score (139) and 54-hole score (211).

About the Women's Golf Coaches Association

The Women's Golf Coaches Association, founded in 1983, is a non-profit organization representing women's collegiate golf coaches. The WGCA was formed to encourage the playing of college golf for women in correlation with a general objective of education and in accordance with the highest tradition of intercollegiate competition. Today, the WGCA represents over 600 coaches throughout the U.S. and is dedicated to educating, promoting and recognizing both its members and the student-athletes they represent.
