OUR HISTORY

The Women's White Collar Defense Association was founded in the late 1990s with the mission to promote equal opportunity in the field of white collar defense practice, including in providing networking and educational programming.

Today, WWCDA has thousands of members in dozens of chapters throughout North America, South America, Europe, Latin America, and Asia Pacific.

Many of our members have served in government positions and corporate roles. Notable members include former corporate General Counsels and Chief Compliance Officers, as well as former prosecutors and high-ranking government officials.
