WHO IS THE WOMEN'S WHITE COLLAR DEFENSE ASSOCIATION?

The Women's White Collar Defense Association (WWCDA) is a non-profit professional association that promotes equality for all in the legal profession. Specifically, members of WWCDA are attorneys in law firms and consultants that represent clients facing government enforcement actions (criminal, civil, regulatory, and administrative), and/or internal investigations, compliance, and other defense matters. Many of the WWCDA members previously served in government positions and in corporate roles. Notable members include former corporate General Counsels and Chief Compliance Officers, as well as former prosecutors and high ranking government officials.

THE ASSOCIATION EXISTS TO PROVIDE:

- Networking opportunities and business development for the chapter members
- Substantive and educational resources
- A forum to hear from government officials and the private sector
- A clearing house for discussion of pressing white collar bar issues
- A vehicle for information sharing related to job openings and other items of interest.

WWCDA GOALS

- Promote equality for all in the legal profession and in the legal fields of criminal, civil, regulatory, and administrative enforcement, as well as internal investigations, compliance and ethics.
- Develop educational programming focused on the legal fields of criminal, civil, regulatory, and administrative enforcement, as well as internal investigations, compliance and ethics.
- Facilitate collaboration and communication among our members and participants.
- Provide networking and business development opportunities for our members and participants in their local markets, as well as nationally and internationally.
- Develop resources to assist our members and participants.
