WOMEN'S WHITE COLLAR DEFENSE ASSOCIATION MAKING AN IMPACT

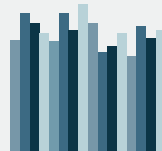

The Women's White Collar Defense Association (WWCDA) promotes the common business and professional interests of attorneys and other professionals who specialize in white collar and other defense and compliance work. Specifically, members of WWCDA are attorneys in law firms and consultants that represent clients facing government enforcement actions (criminal, civil, regulatory, and administrative), and/or internal investigations, compliance, and other defense matters. Many of the WWCDA chapter members previously served in government positions and in corporate roles. Notable members include former corporate General Counsels and Chief Compliance Officers, as well as former prosecutors and high ranking government officials.

PROMOTING EQUALITY

WWCDA INITIATIVES

WWCDA has many initiatives that promote equal opportunity for all in white collar defense. WWCDA successfully places members on panels at conferences and other events around the world and promotes the professional accomplishments of our members and sponsors on social media and the wwcda.org website. WWCDA uses the size and strength of the association to ensure more members are included in the ranking guides for top professionals, which prospective clients rely upon in choosing who to hire. WWCDA helps promote its members for monitor/receivership opportunities.

One of WWCDA's missions is to leverage the power of its collective resources to champion the expertise and accomplishments of professionals in the field. The association hosts an online community (WWCDA Connect), regularly publishes a newsletter, maintains a resource library, and offers educational opportunities through the Thought Leadership Committee for its members.
